Dear Ms Homor,

Welcome to Radboud University. You have permission to work as an external PhD-candidate at the chair Strategy of the Nijmegen School of Management for the period from 15 March 2019 up to and including 14 March 2021.

Agreements

- As a volunteer, you are required to maintain the confidentiality of information you obtained in confidence, or which you can reasonably suspect to be confidential.
- You will not receive financial compensation from Radboud University for the work you perform.

Insurance

For the period indicated, you will be insured against accidents on the basis of Radboud University's accident insurance coverage for volunteers. Among other things, this insurance covers the risk of accidents during the work duties and while you follow the (shortest) route to and from the university. While carrying out your work as a volunteer, you will be covered under Radboud University's liability insurance.

Access to RadboudNet

We will soon send you an e-mail with your login details. This will allow you to log into RadboudNet, the intranet of Radboud University and make use of the e-mail server, among other things. You can also use this login information to apply for a campus card. This card gives you access to various buildings on campus, but can also act as a parking pass, library card at the University Library or a sports pass at the Radboud Sports Centre.

Contact

If you have any further questions about this letter, please contact Anouk van de Kerkhof. You can find the contact details at the top of this letter. We hope you enjoy your time at Radboud University.

Yours sincerely,

Drs. H.L. Loolijmans,
Managing Director
